

Sean Laughead, originally from Waukee, Iowa, is a Junior working towards a BFA in Dance with Honors and a certificate in Performing Arts Entrepreneurship.

Prior to college, he trained with Capital City Dance Center and spent summers at the School of American Ballet, San Francisco Ballet, and Milwaukee Ballet. After graduation, Sean performed professionally in soloist roles with Ballet Minnesota and Kari Jensen's Moving Arts Ensemble in Saint Paul.

At the University of Iowa, he has had the chance to dance for guest choreographers such as Nicholas Leichter and Jennifer Muller, as well as with faculty members Alan Sener, Deanna Carter, Jennifer Kayle, Eloy Barragan, and Armando Duarte and graduate students Chris Masters, Melinda Myers, Michael Medcalf, Zoe Bennett, and Amy Schleunes.

Sean is a member of the touring group Dancers in Company, the events coordinator for the Undergraduate Dance Organization, and a writer for the department's Halsey Herald newsletter.
