

STB X AT

Sean Thomas Boyt and Dr. Andy Thierauf have been cross-disciplinary collaborators for the past four years, creating work that spans a variety of genres by using dance and percussion as mediums for engaging performance art. Incorporating electronics, improvisation, text, and physical theater, the "dance/perc" duo is constantly experimenting and producing material while refining their practices individually. Sean and Andy have been invited to perform their collaborations across the nation at the Percussive Arts Society International Convention, Dixon Place, The Wilma Theater, CollabFest, Omaha Under the Radar, Vox Populi, Never Before Never Again Festival, The Painted Bride, the Philadelphia Fringe Festival, Converge Dance Festival, Get Pegged Cabaret, and Movement Research, among others. stb x at has been supported by residencies at Soundspace 1525, University of Iowa, and Capital City Dance Center.
